Sherlock Holmes sat at the breakfast table and gave me a walking stick. There was something written on it: "To Mr James Mortimer, from his friends – 1884." 'Well, Watson, what can you tell me about the owner of the stick?' asked Holmes. 'I think that Mr Mortimer is an old country doctor. His patients like him, so they gave him this walking stick.' 'Good!' said Holmes. 'Why do you think he's a country doctor?' 'Because this stick is very scratched. A city doctor does not carry such an old stick.' Holmes took the stick from my hands and looked at it. 'Interesting! I think the man is a country doctor, but he is not old. He's a young, pleasant and absent-minded doctor.' 'How did you know that?' 'Elementary, my dear Watson. Only pleasant people get presents, and only absent-minded men forget their sticks.'

1) Why do you think Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson are such famous characters?

The two men are fictional characters in a series of books by the Scottish author Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.

Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson are famous because they were the main characters who solved mysteries in Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's very popular books.

2) Look at the picture. Who are these two men? What do you think they are doing?

They are Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson. They are examining an object, analysing it and drawing conclusions.

3) How did Sherlock Holmes find out who the owner of the stick was? In a group, use the same method to identify the owner of an object.

1. He observed the details:

- The scratches on the stick
- The writing on it
- The fact that it was lost

2. He explained the details:

- The owner must live in the countryside because the stick is very scratched.
- He must be friendly for people to offer him presents.
- He must be absent-minded because he forgot his walking stick.

3. He reached a conclusion: The owner is a young, pleasant and absent-minded country doctor.

4) Who are the men in the story? Who was Mr Mortimer? Was he old or young? Who gave him his walking stick?

5)

6) Do you want to be a detective? What makes a good detective? In a group, make a list of the characteristics of a good detective. Use the keywords to guide you?

Patience, intelligence, a logical mind, a good sense of observation...

7)

Sherlock Holmes is more famous than Poirot and Miss Marple. In fact, he’s the most famous detective of all time. The basis of his method was observation, observation and observation. After observing an object, he made logical conclusions.

Hercule Poirot was less interested in details than Sherlock Holmes. He was more interested in studying the mind of the suspects. He thought that the best tools to solve a crime were the “little grey cells” in the brain. So, he sat quietly and thought.

Miss Jane Marple is less famous than Holmes or Poirot, but more pleasant than them. She didn’t look like a detective at all. She lived in a small village in the country and she used her experience of life in her village to solve crimes. She was wiser than Holmes because she was older than him. In fact, she was the oldest of the three.

a. How did Sherlock Holmes solve crimes?

b. According to Poirot, what are the best tools to solve a crime?
